National Aquarium in Baltimore - The Aquarium is home to approximately 16,500 specimens and more than 660 species of animals. The Aquarium's two spectacular structures contain more than two million gallons of water. A complete walking tour of the Aquarium takes about 2 hours. For safety purposes, all strollers must be checked – no fee for this service.

Exhibits:

- Blacktip Reef: This Indo-Pacific ocean exhibit will feature sharks, rays and green sea turtles.
- Jellies Invasion: This exhibit features nine different species of these prehistoric survivors.
- Open Ocean Shark Walk: Sharks of varying sizes and species slowly encircle visitors inside this 225,000-gallon, ring-shaped exhibit.
- Dolphin Discovery: All guests can watch training, feeding, and play times with the dolphins and interact with our dolphin experts. Included with admission.
- 4D Immersion: The Aquarium's 4-D Immersion Films bring you closer to the sights, sounds, and smells of the action. Additional cost.
- Atlantic Coral Reef: More than 500 exotic species surround visitors as they descend through the exhibit.
- Upland Tropical Rain Forest: This world-renowned rainforest exhibit includes rare plants and animals from habitats that are becoming extinct at alarming rates.
- Australia Wild Extremes: The exhibit depicts a typical northern Australia river gorge. This slice of Australia in Baltimore offers visitors a truly immersive experience: as you walk through the bottom of the gorge, get close to 1,800 individual native animals representing 120 species, including freshwater crocodiles, turtles, fishes, snakes, lizards, free-flying birds, and flying foxes. Many of these unique and unusual animals are found only in Australia.
- Maryland: Mountains to the Sea: See some of the animals that show the diversity of Maryland's aquatic life.
- North Atlantic to the Pacific: Home to playful puffins and the only black guillemots on display in the country.
- Amazon River Forest: See giant fish and turtles, freshwater stingrays, and dwarf caiman.

Dining: There are several convenient dining facilities located throughout the Aquarium. These locations serve a variety of food and beverage options. Enjoy daily specials, as well as soups, salads, pizzas, and sandwiches.
