Rainbow’s Comedy Playhouse

On April 4, 1984, Rainbow’s Comedy Playhouse took its first curtain call. It has been producing Broadway and original comedies ever since.

Founders/producers David and Cindy DiSavino were two working actors living in New York City struggling to survive. Their theatrical jobs took them many different places, but nine times out of ten, they were hired to be in a funny. They decided they enjoyed making people laugh, and that it was time to make a business out of it.

Their first theatre was located in the banquet room of the Historic Strasburg Inn. The restaurant provided the food and wait staff. They learned a lot in the first two years, but the inn was sold and the new owners didn’t want to continue the relationship.

Much to Rainbow’s delight a well-established and highly successful restaurant had heard about their business and offered them a banquet room in which to continue to produce. This was the beginning of a beautiful friendship between Lancaster’s famous Historic Revere Tavern and our dinner theatre. From 1986 until 1995 Rainbow grew to a five-day-a-week operation.

Rainbow had another new beginning on February 14, 1995. The new theatre opened and the DiSavino’s began to learn a whole new set of skills: managing a restaurant, but in the end, the result is Rainbow’s Comedy Playhouse, a beautiful place where family and friends of all ages come to eat well, and laugh well, and that is a marvelous thing.

Love, Lies, & the Lottery

Picture this: one winning lottery ticket, five people who think they own it, and the darn thing’s gone missing.....or has it? The people you Love may tell Lies when there’s 510 million dollars at stake! You’re a winner if you have a ticket to Rainbow’s Comedy Playhouse for Love, Lies, & the Lottery.
