Philadelphia Zoo: The Philadelphia Zoo is home to over 1300 animals including more than 300 different species and subspecies. Exhibits are indoor & outdoor. The Philadelphia Zoo's 42 acre campus is filled with a variety of animal habitats. Each habitat is designed to provide you and your family with an up close and personal experience. Exhibits - Africans Plains, Monkey Junction, Big Cat Falls, Primate Reserve, Bear Country, Bird Valley, Reptile and Amphibian House, Carnivore Kingdom, Small Mammal House, KidszooU and McNeil Avian Center.

Food: Indoor and outdoor food concessions offer a variety of eating options. The Zoo also maintains picnic areas at several picturesque outdoor locations. Guests are permitted to bring their own food and drink; however, alcohol is prohibited on Zoo grounds.

Adventure Aquarium is located in Camden NJ. Walk into the Adventure Aquarium and you'll hear the rube of a massive rainforest waterfall. Rising up two full stories, the Irazu Falls pours over 400 gallons of water into a deep, freshwater pool filled with hundreds of Amazon River fish. Step foot into the West African River Experience featuring massive hippopotamuses (Button & Genny), crocodiles, porcupine and a free-flight aviary with more than 20 different species of birds flying overhead.

Travel into the depths of the ocean and explore the wonders of the deep sea in the Jules Verne Gallery. Surround yourself in the 40 foot floor to ceiling, walk-through tunnel as 24 sand bar, sand tiger and nurse sharks surround you in the 550,000 gallon Shark Realm.

Walk through the Caribbean Currents with each of the fifteen different exhibits filled with exotic and amazing creatures that are best described as other-worldly. There is a hands-on creature lab, a giant tow story Amazon Waterfall, penguin and seal exhibits, and a thrilling touch-a-shark attraction. Additional exhibits & shows: Ocean Realm, Seal Shores, Penguin Island, Touch-A-Shark, Creature Feature, Rainforest Rendezvous and Feather Ridge.

Food: Feeding Frenzy Cafe is a self-serve restaurant and has indoor and outdoor seating. Food and drink are not permitted in the Aquarium. Aquarium is handicapped accessible.
