Lunch included at Gadsby's Tavern Restaurant

The site known as Gadsby's Tavern consists of two buildings, a (circa) 1785 tavern and the 1792 City Hotel. The tavern is named after Englishman John Gadsby, an entrepreneur who leased the buildings and operated them as tavern keeper from 1796 until 1808. The tavern and hotel were the center of Alexandria's economic, political, and social life in the late-18th and early-19th centuries. Notable visitors include George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, James Madison and James Monroe.
