Tour and Tasting at Morse Farm Maple Sugarworks

Morse Farms offers 200 years of maple experience. The Morse family's eight generation maple experience is shown via colorful video and live presentations in the farm's Woodshed Theater and Sugarhouse. You will sample Vermont Maple syrup, jams, jellies and more. An outdoor museum includes an antique replica of the Vermont State House. A gentle maple trail leads right to the trees where it all begins. Visitors delight in Burr Morse's soft sculpture and tree elves. Vermont specialty foods, produce in season, and a full array of craft and gift items.

Sugar on Snow - included

Sugar on Snow at the Morse Farm is a Vermont tradition! Enjoy our 100% pure Vermont maple syrup boiled to a soft ball stage and poured over shaved ice. A sweet maple taffy will form as the hot syrup meets the coldness. You'll sink your fork in and enjoy the sticky sweetness! Enjoy a dill pickle to offset the sweetness and a raised donut to soak up the extra syrup.

Arrive Woodstock, VT

Self-guided tour at Billings Farm & Museum – includes a horse-drawn wagon-ride (subject to weather conditions)

Billings Farm & Museum is a fully-operational dairy farm and a museum of Vermont's rural heritage located in Woodstock, Vermont. The farm dates back to 1871, when Vermont native Frederick Billings established his herd of prize-winning Jerseys and began replanting the barren hillsides. His farm flourished and remains the oldest registered Jersey dairy farm in the country, milking cows daily, producing raw-milk cheddar cheese, and visited by over 55,000 families and school groups each year. Interactive programs, award-winning historical exhibits, and seasonal events introduce our visitors to Vermont's dairying past and present.
