National Zoo: About 2,000 animals from 400 different species can be seen in indoor and outdoor exhibits throughout the National Zoo. Some of the exhibits show animals that live in the same part of the world, others highlight a variety of animals in a taxonomic group, such as birds and great apes, and others feature animals all on their own. Animal Exhibits are open from 10am - 6pm. Check at the Visitor's Center near Connecticut Ave to see schedule of day's activities and films being shown.

Exhibits:

- Amazonia: Living tropical forest
- Asia Trail: Six Asian specie
- Asian Elephants
- American Beaver
- Bird House: Hundreds of birds
- Cheetah Conservation Station: Outdoor exhibit
- Giant Pandas Habitat: The Zoo's three pandas—Tai Shan, Mei Xiang, and Tian Tian
- Great Apes and other primates
- Great Cats: Four African lions and four Sumatran tigers
- Invertebrate Exhibit: Home to dozens of fascinating species
- Kids' Farm
- Lemur Island: Ring-tailed and red-fronted lemurs.
