Medieval Times Dinner & Tournament is North America's longest running and most popular dinner attraction. Guests experience an evening of quality, family entertainment inspired by 11th century history. Inside the fully enclosed, climate-controlled castle, you'll feast on a four-course medieval banquet while watching colorful equestrian drills. Then, you'll cheer for brave knights on horseback competing in daring medieval tournament games, jousting matches and sword fights.

Bill of Fare: Guest feast on Garlic Bread, Tomato Bisque Soup, Roasted Chicken, Spare Rib, Herb-Basted Potato, Pastry of the Castle, coffee and select beverages. A full-service bar is also available.

Show: (show length is approximately 2 hours)

Prologue - An exhibition of superb horsemanship. See how proud Andalusia stallions are trained.

The Pageant - Heralds announce the entry of our knights, their faithful squires, retainers and His Royal Highness.

The Feast – Legions of serving wenches and serfs deliver four courses to hungry guests in minutes “medieval style” – without silverware.

Guards of the Castle - The Guards of the Castle entertain with military drills and the elegant art of dressage.

Tournament of Games - Six knights from near and far test their skills in this fast-paced competition. Marvel at the ring pierce, the flag toss and the javelins throw.

The Ambassador - The Ambassador presents his dancing stallion.

Tournament Royale - Cheer your own brave knight as he jousts in your honor, and sword-fights to the death.

Queen of Love and Beauty - The champion knight searches the audience for his own true lady - The Queen of Love and Beauty - so all may pay her homage.
