Veldheer's Tulip Garden & DeKlomp Wooden Shoe & Delft Factory

Veldheer's is Holland's only tulip farm perennial garden. In 1950, Vern Veldheer, started a hobby farm with 100 red tulips & 300 white tulips. Today Veldheer's plants over 5 million tulips for you to walk through and enjoy. Perennials and flowers are brought in from around the world for you to buy and plant in your gardens. When you visit the farm, not only will you see five million tulips in bloom, but 50,000 daffodils, 10,000 hyacinths and 20,000 crocus all providing a continuous parade of color for the garden enthusiast.

De Klomp Wooden Shoe and Delft Factory is a store that words cannot describe. From the time you walk into the door, your eyes will not believe the beauty and splendor of the items on the shelves. Talk with the staff as they explain how they make the product from beginning to end production. See the detail and pride of work that goes into each piece of products they make.

Lunch show included

Windmill Island Gardens

A palette of color awaits you as you wind along the entrance to Holland's treasured island. Tour up into DeZwaan, the only authentic Dutch windmill operating in the United States, grinding locally-grown wheat into flour, which you can purchase in the gift shop. DeZwaan sports a new deck and a restored grinding system. Take a guided tour of the mill with authentically-costumed guides; you might even meet the Dutch-certified miller and see the milling process in action. From the fourth-floor deck, you can survey 36 acres of manicured gardens, dikes, and canals. Throughout Windmill Island Gardens, you'll also find more costumed guides, an Amsterdam street organ, a hand-painted Dutch carousel, children's playground, picnic areas, all the flags of the Netherlands, horses in the back pasture, a replica of a Dutch Inn, gift shops, and much more.
