Rice's Flea Market: Rice's Market is now the oldest and largest outdoor market in Buck's County – attracting over 400 vendors and 8,000 shoppers per week and has long been a destination for locals and tourists that seek a unique and eclectic bargain shopping experience. The 30 acre outdoor market is open on Tuesdays and Saturdays and includes paved walkways, a modern indoor bathroom facility, ATM machines and updated buildings. Vendors come from all around, as they have for over 100 years, to sell their goods:

Antiques and Collectibles
Fresh Fruits & Vegetables
Jewelry

Amish Meats & Baked Goods
Handbags
Clothing

Peddler's Village Strawberry Festival: Strawberries take center stage at this traditional spring celebration featuring all sorts of strawberries - dipped in chocolate, in assorted pastries, shortcake, jams, fritters and fresh and unadorned.

Also, enjoy the large craft area where juried artisans showcase their work at the Street Road Green Artisan area.

Don't miss the live entertainment throughout the village and strawberry pie-eating contests!

You will also discover a historic Bucks County village with charming colonial-style buildings, award winning gardens, distinctive Bucks County shopping in over 65 specialty shops and much more.
