Museum of the American Revolution: Enjoy a journey through the remarkable story of America's founding and gain a deeper understanding of the people, events, and ideals that gave birth to the nation. Located just steps from Independence Hall in the heart of Historic Philadelphia, the Museum brings the stories of our nation's founding to life in exciting and unique ways.

Reading Terminal Market is one of America's largest and oldest public markets, housed since 1893 in a National Historic Landmark building. The Market offers an incredible selection of locally grown & exotic produce, locally sourced meats and poultry, plus the finest seafood, cheeses, baked goods, and confections. You'll find everything you need to create a memorable meal, from cookbooks, to table linens, to kitchenware, to fresh cut flowers, and more. Plus the widest variety of restaurants under one roof. Find it all here at Philadelphia's historic public market!

National Constitution Center is a nonprofit, nonpartisan institution devoted to the United States Constitution. On Independence Mall in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the center is an interactive museum and a national town hall for constitutional dialogue, hosting government leaders, journalists, scholars, and celebrities for public discussions. The center houses the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach, which offers civic learning resources onsite and online. It does not house the original Constitution, which is stored at the National Archives Building in Washington, D.C.

The National Constitution Center's main exhibits include three attractions: FREEDOM RISING, a multimedia theatrical production, presented in the all-new SIDNEY KIMMEL THEATER; THE STORY OF WE THE PEOPLE, an interactive exhibit; and the iconic SIGNERS' HALL, with 42 life-size, bronze statues of the Founding Fathers. Photography and video of any kind are prohibited in the museum exhibit areas, with the exception of Signers' Hall.
