Experience the Bloomsburg Fair now in its 165th year. The annual Bloomsburg Fair is an agricultural fair with livestock and horticultural exhibits, amusement rides, concerts, food, crafts, truck and tractor pulls, demolition derby, harness racing, music, entertainment, horse pulling, fireworks, and much more. It was originally an agricultural exhibition held on the lower end of Second Street, which is now Main Street. Since then it has grown to be the largest fair in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
