The Philadelphia Flower Show (PFS)

The Philadelphia Flower Show is the nation’s largest and longest-running horticultural event, will move outdoors for the first time, making it a history-making experience that will incorporate the beautiful landscapes of FDR Park in Philadelphia.

“In Full Bloom”

As the world evolves, the inherent beauty in nature restores us. One’s garden provides a place for healing and connection. The 2022 Philadelphia Flower Show, “In Full Bloom,” welcomes all as we journey to explore the restorative and healing power of nature and plants, while experiencing all that gardening offers to improve our lives. This year’s theme connotes good health, a positive well-being, and a passion for life that culminates in a gorgeous and colorful spectacle.

Where to Eat: There will be several different food vendors at the flower show and multiple places to eat, along with accessibility to food trucks.

Handicap Accessibility: The Flower Show at FDR Park is an outdoor experience and is accessible to visitors with disabilities. The grounds of the show will be comprised of varied terrain, but strollers and wheelchairs can be utilized on both paved and gravel paths. Please know that there can be guests, bright colors, and loud sounds throughout the show grounds.

Visitor Suggestions:

- Dress for the occasion – There is a lot to see, so comfortable shoes are a must.
- Take notes - Jot down the name of plants you like or the contact information of exhibitors, or snap a photo of your favorite exhibits.
- Make a shopping list - The Flower Show is a shopper’s paradise!
