Rice's Flea Market

Rice's Market is now the oldest and largest outdoor market in Buck's County – attracting over 400 vendors and 8,000 shoppers per week and has long been a destination for locals and tourists that seek a unique and eclectic bargain shopping experience. The 30-acre outdoor market is open on Tuesdays and Saturdays and includes paved walkways, a modern indoor bathroom facility, ATM machines and updated buildings. Vendors come from all around, as they have over 100 years, to sell their goods: Antiques and Collectibles, Amish Meats & Baked Goods , Fresh Fruits & Vegetables, Handbags, Jewelry, Clothing and more.

Peddler's Village

Discover a storybook village with charming colonial-style buildings, award-winning gardens, and distinctive shopping, dining, and lodging.

OctoberFeast - A culinary spin on the traditional German festival with a beer garden, wine & spirits, food specialties, live music, and family activities.
