The Fulton Theater

From on-stage musical productions and experimental studio plays to workshops and apprenticeships, the Fulton Theatre provides a space for Lancaster, and the surrounding areas, to experience the theatre. Large-scale productions on the main stage gather a diverse community while one-hour musical performances bring families together. Today, under the leadership of Executive Artistic Producer Marc Robin, the Fulton Theatre produces a mix of comedies, dramas and musicals, employing the talents of professional directors, designers, actors and playwrights from across the country. The Fulton also offers classes for children, teens and adults as well as numerous community engagement programs across the region.

Jersey Boys

The Broadway smash hit makes its regional debut! How did four kids from Jersey become one of the greatest successes in pop music history? Jersey Boys takes you up the charts, across the USA and behind the music of Frankie Valli and The Four Season. Experience electrifying performances of the golden greats that took these guys all the way to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame: “Sherry”, Big Girls Don’t Cry”, “Can’t Take My Eyes Off You”, “Dawn”, “My Eyes Adored You”, and more.

Miller’s Smorgasbord

At Miller’s, we cook from scratch and prepare meals that you want to tell your friends about. We get supplies like sweet corn, tomatoes, watermelon, cabbage, broccoli, squash, peppers and onions from Amos, Ben, Manny and Elmer, our Amish neighbors, whose farms surround our restaurants

Do not go home empty handed. There is more to Miller’s than great food, so plan on spending a little time in our shops. If you are waiting for a table, you will be able to hear your ticket number throughout the property. After exploring our Gift & Bake Shop, head over to Locally Made Food Shop, Mt. Hope Winery, The Bible History Exhibit, Ruthie’s, and our Quilt Shop, featuring more than 1,000 handmade quilted items from Amish, Mennonite and other local artisans.
