 Hancock Shaker Village – lunch and time on own

Hancock Shaker Village is a landmark destination of 750 acres, 20 historic Shaker buildings, and over 22,000 Shaker artifacts. On the National Historic Register, it is the most comprehensively interpreted Shaker site in the world, and the oldest working farm in the Berkshires of Western Massachusetts. The land now known as Hancock Shaker Village is on the western edge of an area once called “Pontosuck,” a Mohican word meaning “field or haven for winter deer.” Explore the power of their religious beliefs, the echo of their song and everyday routine, the splendor of their gardens, and the simple beauty and efficiency of their architecture, furniture, and tools.

Glendale Ridge Vineyards

A visit to Glendale Ridge Vineyard is a unique experience, as it provides a close look into the winemaking process from vine to bottle. Located in beautiful Western Massachusetts, close to the Berkshires, is Glendale Ridge Vineyard. A farm built in the 1860s, this is the site of 5 acres of vines that are grown, processed and fermented into our estate wines. We also source fruit carefully from Long Island and the Finger Lakes Region.
