Tour of Kentuck Knob – boxed lunch included

Kentuck Knob is one of Frank Lloyd Wright’s most unique Usonian homes. Guests will learn about the Hagan family, Frank Lloyd Wright, and his vision for the house. The experienced staff of tour guides share stories, historical information, and offer unique insights into this wonderful house.

Please note: The grounds at Kentuck Knob are comprised of uneven terrain, to include gravel driveways, flagstone walking paths and grassy lawns. Therefore, comfortable walking shoes are recommended.

Guided tour of Fallingwater

Fallingwater is a house designed in 1935 by Frank Lloyd Wright for the Kaufmann family, owners of Pittsburgh’s largest department store. One of Wright’s most widely acclaimed works, Fallingwater exemplifies his philosophy of organic architecture: the harmonious union of art and nature. Wright designed Fallingwater to rise above the waterfall over which it is built. Local craftsmen quarried native sandstone and other materials from the property and completed the construction of the main house, guest house and service wing in 1939. In 1963, Edgar Kaufmann Jr. donated and entrusted Fallingwater and the surrounding 469 acres of natural land to the Western Pennsylvania Conservancy., a nonprofit conservation organization.
