Caught in the crossfire between two massive armies, hundreds of ordinary Americans were forced to make life-or-death decisions. Some survived unscathed – others did not. When the battle ended, devastating scenes awaited. Men, women, and children cared for thousands of wounded soldiers, buried the dead, and rebuilt a war-torn community.

Through a unique set of tour offerings, we invite you to fully immerse yourself in their remarkable stories.

Gettysburg Beyond the Battle Museum

Beyond the Battle Museum exhibits tell the remarkable story of ordinary eyewitnesses and their extraordinary experiences before, during, and after the Civil War. Through twelve interactive exhibit galleries packed with rare artifacts, the museum explores the story of Gettysburg like you've never seen or heard it before.

Licensed Battlefield Guide

Depart on a guided battlefield tour focusing on farms and families impacted by the 1863 Battle of Gettysburg.

Jennie Wade House

Learn the story of the only civilian to be killed during the Battle of Gettysburg. Authentically furnished from cellar to attic, the Jennie Wade House is a shrine to Jennie and to life during the American Civil War. Just 20 years old at the time of the Battle, Jennie was kneading dough in the kitchen when a rifle bullet pierced two doors and claimed her life.

Shriver House Museum

Travel back in time with a guide in period attire as you walk through the Shriver's meticulously restored 1860 home to learn the other side of the story - the civilian side of the Battle of Gettysburg. Connect to the past while you listen to the story of George, Hettie, Sadie (7) and Mollie (5) unfold as you move from room to room to appreciate what life was like before, during, and after the Civil War.
