

Mütter Museum & Eastern State Penitentiary
October 24, 2024 (Thu)
$113 Adult / $112 Senior (62+) / $105 Child (2-11)

Price includes transportation, admission to Mütter Museum and Guided Tour of Eastern State Penitentiary. Free time on own for lunch at the Reading Terminal Market.

This is a Walking Tour.

8:35am	Depart William Penn Park & Ride - Lot C-1
8:55am	Depart Bethlehem, PA (L.V.I.P)
9:15am	Depart Allentown, PA (Calvary Temple)
9:35am	Depart Quakertown, PA - Park & Ride, Route 663
10:45am	Arrive Philadelphia, PA
11:00am - 12:30pm	Mütter Museum – Philadelphia, PA
1:00pm-2:15pm	Reading Terminal Market – lunch and time on own
3:00pm-5:00pm	Eastern State Penitentiary Guided Tour

Mütter Museum

The Mütter Museum displays its beautifully preserved collections of anatomical specimens, models, and medical instruments in a nineteenth-century "cabinet museum" setting.

The goal of the Museum is to help visitors understand the mysteries and beauty of the human body and appreciate the history of diagnosis and treatment of disease.

Reading Terminal Market

The Reading Terminal Market, considered by many as one of the finest public markets in the U.S., blends together state-of-the-art systems technology without sacrificing its historical integrity. It's not only a popular hometown attraction, but also the most popular Philadelphia tourist destination after the Liberty Bell and Independence Hall. More than 80 merchants offer patrons fresh produce, meats, fish, groceries, flowers, baked goods, crafts, books, clothing, as well as hard-to-find specialties and ethnic foods. Shopping and dining become a pleasure in this warm, inviting, and unique atmosphere. The Reading Terminal Market, as it was over a hundred years ago, is reminiscent of personal, neighborhood shopping, and still offers something for everyone. A trip to Philadelphia would not be complete without stopping here.

Eastern State Penitentiary

Eastern State Penitentiary was once the most famous and expensive prison in the world, but stands today in ruin, a haunting world of crumbling cellblocks and empty guard towers. Its vaulted, sky-lit cells held nearly 85,000 people over its long history, including bank robber "Slick Willie" Sutton and "Scarface" Al Capone.

The general interest tour highlights Eastern State's 142-year history, revolutionary and influential architecture, and stories of people who lived and worked in the building while setting the stage for conversations about criminal justice reform today.

5:15pm	Depart Philadelphia, PA
7:15pm	Approximate return to Lehigh Valley

Price subject to change.