Mineral & Gem Sluicing Program

Learn about the gemstones, including Maine Tourmaline, commonly found in the area. Don an apron and a bucket for a hands-on-program, where you can keep any treasures, you find.

Maine Balsam Fir Products

Maine Balsam Fir Products is a small company that hand-makes balsam-filled pillows and products. Enjoy the natural and healthy fragrance of balsam as you learn how the owners started the company, how the pandemic affected their business and where they are today. You'll walk along the property to the balsam fir grove, see how they continue to make balsam pillows and other products. And you'll bring home one of the sweet-smelling Balsam fir bags as a souvenir.

Lunch on own
Return to hotel – dinner included at hotel
2-Hour Moose Watching Tour

We'll meet a local guide for a two-hour moose watching tour. The guide will board our coach for a tour to nearby Grafton Notch State Park. Stop for photos at mountain overlooks and the local Artist's Covered Bridge and locations most likely to spot a "gentle giant."

Day 3 Wednesday (B,D)

Breakfast at hotel
Depart hotel for the Rangeley area
Coos Canyon

Coos Canyon is a roadside park carved out of the Swift River. Erosion has chiseled steep cliffs on both sides of the river making for a beautiful view of the falls. We'll stop into the Coose Canyon Rock & Gift Store.

Height of the Land scenic overlook

There are plenty of great views in Maine, but only one of them is the Height of Land. Perched beside Route 17 in western Maine, the Height of Land offers you an expansive look at the sprawling Rangeley Lakes region and the mountains beyond. This viewpoint, on the Rangeley Lakes Scenic Byway, has been declared one of the finest in the state, if not New England.

Lunch on own

Guided tour at the Outdoor Heritage Museum

Learn about the wooden boats and steamers that travelled the lake and the hungers, fishermen and Native Americans who have flocked to the beautiful Lakes region for centuries.

Maine Forestry Museum

Dedicated to the celebration of the lumbering heritage of the Western Maine Mountain. A tour is provided here with fascinating stories of how the lumbermen made their living and the saws and equipment they used. You'll also see a lumberman art collection and a bunkhouse.

Dinner included at the Rangeley Inn
