Baltimore Inner Harbor

Baltimore is a town for explorers, artists and dreamers. If you are looking for things to do in Baltimore that will awaken your senses, inspire new thinking and spark your spirit of adventure, you will find it here.

Baltimore Inner Harbor is a sightseeing hub, home to Maryland Science center with a planetarium and observatory, and the National Aquarium, featuring giant turtles, dolphins and electric eels. The Top of the World Observation Level offers sweeping views of the city, while a collection of historic warships are dock below. Power Plant Live! is a complex of bars, eateries and music venues in a former power station.

Baltimore National Aquarium

Transport yourself to the underwater wonders of the world at the National Aquarium. Ranked as one the nation's top three aquariums, the aquarium offers awe-inspiring exhibits that are sure to wow you. Located in Baltimore's Inner Harbor, you will find thousands of species in award-winning habitats. From colorful aquatic characters like sharks, dolphins, exotic fish to diverse collections of plants and animals like crocodiles, birds and reptiles, the National Aquarium delivers a memorable experience for people of any age.
