Museum of the American Revolution

The American Revolution was dramatic, gritty, and full of uncertainty – an era of unparalleled political and social upheaval, even by today’s standards. The museum invites you to explore this rich and complicated era and its connections to our world today. Through its unmatched collection of Revolutionary-era weapons, personal items, documents, and works of art, the Museum considers the complexities of our nation’s history and uplifts stories that have gone untold. An audio tour is included in your admission.

Special Exhibition - The Declaration’s Journey, presented by Griffin Catalyst, marks the 250th anniversary of our nation’s founding by exploring the history and global impact of the Declaration of Independence from 1776 to today. With more than 100 nations having integrated its ideals into their own independence movements, the exhibition showcases how American Declaration of Independence has become one of the most influential political documents in modern history, gathering together for the first time in one place some of the most important and rare documents, works of art, and artifacts from around the world that reflect the complex 250-year history and legacy of the Declaration of Independence.

Reading Terminal Market

Explore Philly’s oldest Public Market with over 75 diverse small, family owned businesses providing local produce, meats, poultry, seafood, cheeses, baked goods, confections, an array of freshly prepared foods and gifts.

National Constitution Center

The National Constitution Center brings together people of all ages and perspectives, across America and around the world, to learn about, debate, and celebrate the greatest vision of human freedom in history, the U.S. Constitution.

The National Constitution Center will open two new galleries on America’s founding and the separation of powers in time for America’s 250th anniversary in 2026.
