Old Friends at Cabin Creek – Retirement home for Thoroughbred Horses

Old Friends at Cabin Creek is a natural, nurturing forever home to retired race horses, located in Greenfield Center, NY. Opened in 2009, it is home to many special athletes, among them Commentator (two-time Whitney winner), Roaring Lion (Leo), Red South Down, and the lovable character Zippy Chippy. Old Friends at Cabin Creek is a living museum of horse racing. When our visitors look into the faces of our amazing horses, hear their stories and achievements, watch them frolic in their spacious pastures, they realize that they deserve to live out their retirement years in peace.

Saratoga Race Track - Races

Saratoga Race track is a legendary Thoroughbred racing venue, celebrated as one of the oldest and most historic sporting sites in the United States. You'll have reserved seating to enjoy the races.
