United State Naval Academy Museum

Discover seafaring stories throughout the Navy's history with fascinating artifacts, videos, and audio that bring to life the legendary journeys of the men and women who have served our country at sea. Explore the history of sea power, the development of the U.S. Navy, and the role of the U.S. Naval Academy in training the officers destined to lead America's sailors and Marines, all on two floors of engaging exhibits. Prepare to be awed by the largest ship model collection in the world - a must see!

Annapolis City Dock

Simply relaxing at City Dock is a major reason why people visit Annapolis. Take in the sunshine while sitting outside at one of several dining establishments that allow you watch the boats cruise in and out of Ego Alley. Mosey down Main Street from Church Circle to City Dock and you'll discover dozens of unique, locally-owned fashion boutiques and specialty gift shops tucked in between art galleries, pubs, restaurants and historic inns. Many of these small shop owners import their hand-crafted goods from far-off lands, just as town merchants have been doing for the past 350 years.

Annapolis Harbor Cruise – Watermark Cruises

Step aboard the classic Harbor Queen for a narrated cruise of the Annapolis Harbor and the banks of the U.S. Naval Academy. Hear the history of the Naval Academy, Annapolis' role as a historic seaport, the region's waterways, and catch a glimpse of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge. This cruise is an Annapolis tradition and fun for the whole family.
