A Day at the Museum: Your choice of One (1) Museum
Choices include; Shedd Aquarium, Field Museum or Museum of Science & Industry.

The Shedd Aquarium in Chicago is one of the largest and most impressive indoor aquariums in the world, located along the city's scenic lakefront in Museum Campus. It's home to over 30,000 aquatic animals from around the globe, including fish, sharks, penguins, sea otters, dolphins, and beluga whales.

Visitors can explore a variety of themed exhibits such as "Caribbean Reef," "Amazon Rising," and "Wild Reef," which showcase diverse underwater habitats. The Abbott Oceanarium offers captivating marine mammal presentations, while interactive touch pools and immersive displays make it a favorite for all ages.

A visit to Shedd Aquarium offers a fascinating look at marine life and conservation, blending education, entertainment, and stunning aquatic environments in one of Chicago's top attractions

A visit to the Field Museum in Chicago is an inspiring journey through natural history, science, and world cultures. Located on the city's Museum Campus, it's one of the largest and most renowned natural history museums in the world.

Visitors can explore fascinating exhibits such as SUE the T. rex, one of the most complete Tyrannosaurus rex skeletons ever discovered, and Máximo the Titanosaur, a life-sized replica of one of the largest dinosaurs known. Other highlights include ancient Egyptian artifacts, gems and minerals, and interactive displays about evolution, ecosystems, and global civilizations.

The museum's vast collections and engaging exhibits make it both educational and awe-inspiring — a must-see for anyone interested in science, history, and the wonders of the natural world.

Or

A visit to the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago is an exciting, hands-on exploration of innovation, technology, and the wonders of science. Housed in a grand building from the 1893 World's Fair, it's one of the largest science museums in the world.

Visitors can step inside a World War II German submarine, walk through a real Boeing 727 airplane, experience a coal mine tour, and explore exhibits on space exploration, genetics, weather, and robotics. Interactive displays and live demonstrations make learning engaging for all ages.
