Guided Tour at Coe Hall at Planting Fields Arboretum

Coe Hall is the historic centerpiece of Planting Fields Arboretum State Historic Park in Oyster Bay, Long Island, New York. It's a grand Tudor Revival mansion built between 1918 and 1921 for wealthy estate owners William Robertson Coe and his wife Mai Rogers Coe, replacing an earlier house that burned down. The design—meant to evoke an old English country estate—features ornate period architecture and interiors showcasing craftsmanship and decorative arts from the 1920s.
