Brandywine Museum of Art

Brandywine Museum of Art at Christmas becomes a festive, family-friendly destination celebrating the season with holiday charm and artistic tradition. During the winter holidays (typically mid-November through early January), the museum is transformed into a cheerful “Holidays at Brandywine” wonderland, featuring:

- Brandywine Railroad Model Train Display — An iconic, expansive model train exhibit with trains running through detailed miniature scenes that has been a beloved annual tradition for decades.
- Festive Decor & “Critter” Ornaments — Towering holiday trees in the museum’s atrium are adorned with thousands of whimsical, handmade Critter ornaments crafted from natural materials, giving the galleries a warm, creative seasonal glow.
- Special Holiday Exhibitions — Seasonal exhibitions like “Home for the Holidays” showcasing dollhouses and holiday greeting-card artworks by the Wyeth family and other illustrators add artistic depth to the celebration.
