Most of the hotels in the area are equipped with a couple of accessible rooms in their hotel and those tend to book quickly. Also, accessible rooms vary between hotels. Some hotels that label themselves as having accessible rooms may only have bathrooms that have grab bars in the tub area. The hotel also may or may not be able to provide a raised toilet seat or shower chair for the guest on request. Advise the agent of your exact needs at time of booking to ensure the hotels are able to accommodate your needs prior to booking.
