The Philadelphia Flower Show

The PHS Philadelphia Flower Show is both the nation's largest and the world's longest-running horticultural event, featuring stunning displays by premier floral and landscape designers from around the globe. Started in 1829 by the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, the Show introduces diverse and sustainable plant varieties and garden and design concepts.

ICONIC: 2027 Philadelphia Flower Show
As PHS celebrates its 200th anniversary, the 2027 Philadelphia Flower Show presents ICONIC, a celebration of the garden as muse and the extraordinary mark it leaves on our creative culture.

Icons influence how we live and what we create, leaving an imprint across time. Few forces have had that kind of reach through eras and culture like the garden. For thousands of years, our relationship with plants has influenced how we live, make, design, eat, and express ourselves.

The garden's cultural influence can be traced across centuries and creative disciplines, from Claude Monet's "Water Lilies" and the botanical patterns of William Morris to floral motifs in fashion and textiles and the garden-inspired worlds in literature and film. Beyond art and design, the garden has long inspired how we experience flavor and fragrance, from the herbs, fruits, and vegetables we cultivate to the botanical ingredients at the heart of perfumery.

Trends come and go. Icons endure. Discover the timeless influence of gardens on culture as the 2027 Philadelphia Flower Show brings generations of inspiration to life in spectacular new ways.

Where to Eat: Food can be purchased at the Flower Show throughout the Pennsylvania Convention Center. There are Snack Bars at the rear of the main exhibit hall, and full dining services location on Level 3 above the exhibition halls in the Overlook Café. You will also find numerous restaurants in the area immediately surrounding the Convention Center, including Reading Terminal Market and in nearby Chinatown. Free Re-entry: Visitors can re-enter the show on the same day free. Need to have hand stamped.

Handicap Accessibility: The Pennsylvania Convention Center is a handicap accessible building. Elevators are available to guests who require them. Wheelchairs are available for rent on a first-come first-served basis.

Visitor Suggestions:

- Dress for the occasion – There is a lot to see, so comfortable shoes are a must. Dress in layers as it can get chilly on the Show floor.
- Take notes - Jot down the name of plants you like or the contact information of exhibitors, or snap a photo of your favorite exhibits.
- Make a shopping list - The Flower Show is a shopper's paradise!
